- If you change the Architect in Responsible Charge of architectural work in South Carolina, his/her license in South Carolina must be current and in good standing. If the currently designated architect's license has expired, please renew that license prior to renewing the firm's license OR designate another SC-licensed architect. Corporate renewals cannot be processed until the license of the designated architect is current. - Company Name Change (not a company structure change): If you wish to change the company name, you must complete an Amended Certificate of Authorization (COA) form located on the Board website at <https://llr.sc.gov/arch/PDF%20files/AmendedCOAInstructionsAndApplication.pdf>. South Carolina statutes require that individuals listed in firm names must be licensed as architects, engineers, land surveyors or landscape architects in this State or in another state or jurisdiction. If you are adding an individual name(s), please include a supplemental sheet with their full name, state of registration and type of license they currently hold/held.
- Company Structure Changes (i.e., change from a partnership to a corporation): Please email the Board at contact.arch@llr.sc.gov and provide the firm's name, license number and new structure. A registration packet for the new firm will be emailed to you.
