Every person engaged in the practice of water treatment operations must hold a valid certificate of registration issued by the Environmental Certification Board. Application for certification must be in the Board's office within ninety (90) days of beginning employment as a biological wastewater operator.

Employers, Supervisors and Licensees are responsible for notifying the board, within fifteen days, whenever employment in a position requiring certification is begun or terminated.

To be eligible for certification as a water treatment operator, one must meet the experience requirements (relative to each certification level) established by the Board, and pass the certification examination for the "D", the "C", the "B", and the "A" level(s) (depending on the highest level one wishes to reach).

ATTESTATION

I, _____, hereby make application for certification as a water treatment operator in the State of South Carolina, in accordance with Section 40-23-300 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976. In doing so, I affirm that I will perform my duties as an operator as required by law and will obey all rules and regulations promulgated by the South Carolina Environmental Certification Board. Further, I certify that all information given on this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. Incorrect statements may be cause for return, disapproval, suspension or revocation of the application.

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE

South Carolina Law requires that every individual who applies for an occupational or professional license provide a social security number for use in the establishment, enforcement and collection of child support obligations and for reporting to certain databanks established by law. Failure to provide your social security number for these mandatory purposes will result in the denial of your licensure application. Social security numbers may also be disclosed to other governmental regulatory agencies and for identification purposes to testing providers and organizations involved in professional regulation. Your social security number will not be released for any other purpose not provided for by law.

Other personal information collected by the Department for the licensing boards it administers is limited to such personal information as is necessary to fulfill a legitimate public purpose. The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ensures that the public has a right to access appropriate records and information possessed by a government agency. Therefore, some personal information on the application may be subject to public scrutiny or release. The Department collects and disseminates personal information in compliance with The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act, the South Carolina Family Privacy Protection Act, and other applicable privacy laws and regulations. Additionally, the Department shares certain information on the application with other governmental agencies for various governmental purposes, including research and statistical services.
